

Health Department is Staying on of Strawberry Clean-Up

Wright examines some of the debris of a cabin that was already burnt. Rubble and trash are the biggest problems facing the contractor.

STRAWBERRY RES.—Progress is being made at the Boat Camps in the Strawberry Reservoir area, as clean-up has already taken care of the Trout Creek Camp, leaving no sign of what's left.

The clean-up work has been complete, everything, down to the last piece of refuse has been taken away.

"Trout Creek is probably the easiest," said Grant Woodward, Bureau of Reclamation Representative in charge of over-seeing the clean-up operations. Woodward stated that the clean-up at Trout Creek was slowed slightly because the contractor had some disagreements, a contractor.

Wasatch Boosters Auction Paintings

Wasatch County (LRJ) The Wasatch Booster Club is noted for its strong contribution to school activities. Its leadership and members work closely with school representatives and student groups to get done that which would go undone. The spirit of the group extends to the community that enjoys the final products of its efforts. Sometimes individual citizens add a boost to the club by offering something of themselves that others would be hesitant to ask for or even consider.

LaVoy Eaton, a local artist of renown, and his wife Ellie, offered seven copies of his original works to be offered in a raffle to raise Booster funds. The works were framed and matted and presented an art offering that was unique.

The Wasatch High School Drill Team, another organization that has received attention and help from the Booster Club, assisted in selling the raffle tickets.

On May 2, 1984, the drawing was made and winners were: Mike Spanos, Rob Brinkerhoff, Patty Bower, Bruce Balliet, Mike Lisonbee, and Ted Samuelson of Salt Lake City. The activity that began in February was over and happy, successful winners picked up their prizes at the high school where Lamar Kelly, then president of the club, and Dr. Larsen, Principal, extended thanks to the participants and showed appreciation for contribution of the Eatons.

It was one of several winners in the Booster raffle for Eaton's paintings.

and the job was new to the or. The left-over houses, were torn down, and burned, and the debris were then buried in a landfill. The area will be seeded, and reseeded so that terrain will exist, for the long term.

Wright, Wasatch County/Health Department expressed pleasure over the clean-up. He felt that the work, TayCo, Inc. of Heber, had done an excellent job of the landfill and clean-up. Clean-up crews are now working on the Phillips Boat ramp and are working around the Accident in Daniels Canyon Results in Serious Injuries

Two motorcyclists were injured when they were thrown from their bikes after a crash. The victims were riding after a rainstorm. The accident occurred on Highway 40, near the intersection of Highway 12. The victims were taken to Wasatch County Hospital, stabilized and later transferred to hospitals in the lower valley's.

Apparently Tommy L. Sakala, of Vernal, made a U-turn on Highway 40, and the Larsen vehicle didn't have enough room for stopping, and slammed into the rear side of the 1982 pickup driven by Sakala.

Wasatch Ambulance Crews were called to the scene, and transferred the victims to the Wasatch County Hospital. The two injured were listed in serious condition as of Monday night.
